

For Immediate Release

Supermodels Unlimited Magazine hosts the party of the year to kick off the summer on May 28th starting at 6pm in Boston, Massachusetts. Headlining the event is Multi-platinum singer-songwriter and Grammy award winning artist, Mýa

America's Next Top Model judge, Nolé Marin will be hosting the event and scouting for models for his new modeling agency; AIM Model Management.

BOSTON, MA — Supermodels Unlimited Magazine is kicking off the summer on a high note beginning Saturday, May 28, 6pm at Royale Boston, 279 Tremont Street Boston, MA 02116 with a star-studded red carpet event, two fashion shows and a headline performance by multi-platinum, singer-songwriter and Grammy Award winner, Mýa. The event will be hosted by Nolé Marin of America's Next Top Model, who will be scouting for models for his new agency AIM Model Management.

Supermodels Unlimited Magazine's "Beantown Bash" will take place at Royale Boston, 279 Tremont Street Boston, MA at 6 pm prompt. The 2 fashion shows will feature summer fashions presented by Bessie's Boutique and Haute Couture Fashion Show presented by Shekhar Rahate.

This summer kick off will be a night of networking and entertainment featuring a star-studded red carpet and VIP reception. The event promises to be nothing short of energetic with an exclusive VIP guest list. Multi-platinum, actress, singer-songwriter and Grammy Award winner, Mýa will perform her top hits and her new music featuring Cedric Gervais. Guests will be entertained throughout the evening.

Members of the press are invited to attend an exclusive red carpet event for Supermodels Unlimited beginning at 6pm on May 28th with Mýa and many more celebrities. Having Supermodels Unlimited Magazine in Boston will provide new opportunities for local talent and will serve as a platform for young and new models to learn about the industry. Admission to the event is by guest list only. To be added to the guest-list, send an e-mail with your name and phone number to sumagazine@aol.com.

About Mýa

Mýa is a Multi-Platinum, Singer-songwriter and Grammy Award winning artist who entertained the world and impressed millions on ABC's Dancing With the Stars and finished out the decade named as one of Billboard's Hot 100 Artists of the Decade, a Screen Actors Guild (SAG) Award-Winning Actress (for CHICAGO) and is the President and founder of her own non-profit foundation, The Mýa Arts & Tech Foundation. Mýa, whose extensive repertoire includes the hits, "Case of the Ex," "Ghetto Superstar," "Free," "Lady Marmalade" and "My Love Is Like...Wo," is currently preparing for multiple new releases this year including "Love is the Answer" and her 6th studio album, the Japanese flavored IMPORT LP, "K.I.S.S." featuring the single "Fabulous Life" which has received rave reviews from MTV, E!, Billboard, NY Post, Etc...best described by Music Columnist Bradley Stern via MuuMuse; "The time is now! Mýa seizes the day in this glittery, gleeful electro-pop confection ... "Fabulous Life" packs more than enough sparkle and shines to provide universal appeal." Mýa has spent the past decade developing her artistry, entertaining the world, and advocating causes close to her heart. In these 12 years Mýa has grown into a woman with a newfound strength that stems from changes, professionally and personally. For more information on Mýa, log on to www.myamya.com.

About Supermodels Unlimited

Supermodels Unlimited Magazine is a bi-monthly publication and the only magazine on the women's market that focuses on the entire beauty industry. Each issue is packed with fresh fashions, celebrities, modeling advice, new faces and more. For more information on the event, please log on to www.facebook.com/SupermodelsUnlimitedMagazine.

Media and press for coverage on the red carpet are invited—for more information and to RSVP, please contact us at info@icypr.com.