ABOUT THE MOVIE: Through the glass is the story of Jeffrey [Garret McKechnie] who lives the ultimate bachelor's life going through numerous non-committed relationships, but struggles to excel at work and gain his father's love and acceptance. Jeffrey's life gets even more intriguing when life deals him a card that stops him in his tracks. On a typical day, he returns from work to find a note "take care of your responsibility" left on top of a baby who is abandoned on his doorstep. In nothing short of what is scary, confusing and comedic, he turns to his Nigerian neighbor, Ada [Stephanie Okereke] who he has a secret crush on, to help him.

What happens to the baby? Will Jeffrey break through the glass of his phobia for commitment and keep the baby?
Will Jeffrey confess his secret crush on Ada?
