ABOUT IJORERE The Invitation

Architect by day, Invitation Extraordinaire by night, IJORERE The Invitation is one of many expressions of Ola-Tokunbo's creativity & appreciation for what she views as Art. With her production team passionately working on beautifully hand-made earth-friendly specialties, her contemporary invitations celebrate a new innovative culture of inter-diversity with influences of her Nigerian-American background. Recently commissioned to work with one of celebrity's most sort after wedding planner's David Tutera, Ola is creating a name for her brand as the premier source for couture invitations. Her most celebrated design & accomplishments includes her IJORERE Signature wooden box© enclosures and her upcoming posh baby papery, IJOBABY.

"I am extremely excited about this upcoming open house. Unveiling of IJORERE The Invitation, as I would like to call it now opens the door allowing my clients to physically view my collection. The IJORERE gallery will be sold exclusively at TT Patton, a cute upscale stationery & pen shop with lovely ambience. When you enter this cozy shop, you simply never want to leave which is why I want my collection there.

Another added bonus is that we can utilize this same space to host small bridal & baby events!" – Ola-Tokunbo Muhammed
